ACCOUNTING SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Accounting Scholars program allows eligible students to be accepted to Saint Louis University’s Integrated Accounting Program during their junior year. This program is available only to entering freshmen students whose high school scholastic achievement and admission test scores demonstrate superior academic success. Accounting Scholars who complete the program requirements are guaranteed a seat in Saint Louis University’s Integrated Accounting Program and will be given priority consideration for graduate level scholarships.

Requirements:

• Composite ACT score of at least 30 or a combined SAT score of at least 1330 (math and verbal).
• High school GPA of at least 3.6 (weighted or unweighted).
• Indication of “Accounting” as the intended area of study on the Application for Freshman Admission and acceptance into the freshman class.
• Receipt and completion of an invitation to the program from the Accounting Department.

To remain in the program, students must:

• Have at least a 3.5 cumulative GPA at the close of freshman year and at least a 3.6 cumulative GPA at the close of sophomore year and thereafter.
• Complete select coursework and other activities as determined by the Accounting Department.

Accounting Scholars will be notified of their acceptance to Saint Louis University’s Integrated Accounting Program upon completion of the program requirements during the spring semester of junior year. Accounting Scholars will not be required to take the GMAT exam, but must formally submit application materials to the Integrated Accounting Program to complete their admission.
